

WXDU SPRING SCHEDULE OF SHOWS

January 30 (Thursday) - Crowsdell and Jennyanykind

Duke Coffeehouse, show starts 10 PM, $5 at the door.

February 25 (Tuesday) - Matthew Shipp and William Parker Duo

Nelson Music Room (Duke's East Campus), 8 PM.

$12/$6 students. Tickets sold in advance through Page Box Office and Poindexter's; some tickets sold at door. This event is being cosponsored with the Duke Institute of the Arts.

March 1 (Saturday) - Cul de Sac and Labradford

Duke Coffeehouse. Cul de Sac films will also be shown.

April 19 (Saturday) - William Hooker Trio

Duke Coffeehouse. This event is being cosponsored with the Duke Institute of the Arts.

Early May - The Flying Luttenbachers (tentative)

Duke Coffeehouse.

For more information on these shows, contact WXDU at 684-2957 or e-mail georgia at george@acpub.duke.edu.

Profits from these shows will go to building WXDU's new antenna and tower.

Check out the WXDU compilation, "Power of Tower," due in record stores soon. The CD features bands who have appeared on WXDU's local music show.

DIRECTIONS:

To Duke's East Campus: From 147 (Durham Freeway) take Swift Avenue/Duke's East Campus Exit. Head towards Ninth Street. After crossing over the train tracks, turn right at the light onto Main Street towards downtown Durham.

Nelson Music Room: Once on Main Street, turn left at the next light onto Campus Drive which takes you through the front entrance to East Campus. The West Duke Building is the first building on the right. The Nelson Music Room is on the second floor of West Duke.

Duke Coffeehouse: On Main Street (from Swift Avenue) pass the front entrance to East Campus and turn left at the next light onto N. Buchanan Blvd. Turn left at the next light (Trinity Avenue) into East Campus. Wind around the white house. The Coffeehouse is located in the back of the brick warehouse behind the white house.